

BUSINESS RECYCLING AND WASTE SERVICES COMMITMENT

RTS Waste are working with businesses together to increase levels of recycling, and this has diverted significant amounts of waste from landfill. This has resulted in huge long-term environmental and financial benefits.

This commitment explains that, if you choose us to provide your waste and recycling services we will continue to build on this success by:

- Offering recycling and waste services that provide value for money and consider the needs of your business;
- Helping you manage your waste, and identify and access recycling and waste management services appropriate for your business; and
- Valuing your feedback and ideas for improving our services.

We are committed to making recycling easy

If you choose us to provide your waste and recycling services you can expect the following:

	1	Reliable and regular collections	If we provide your service and cannot collect when we have said we will, we will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> let you know as soon as possible; and make other arrangements if this is possible.
	2	A collection service tailored to meet the needs of your business	If possible, and appropriate locally, we will carry out a waste audit with you, so we can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> understand the needs of your business; and provide advice on how you might save money by preventing waste and recycling
	3	Clear information about our recycling service	We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> explain what you can and cannot recycle (if we don't collect something, we will let you know who else might be able to help); provide feedback on what happens to your waste and recycling – where it ends up; and make you aware of any new services offered.
	4	Support you to recycle your waste	If we can do so locally, we will give you access to our household waste recycling centres including reuse, recycling and residual waste services. Where appropriate, we will give you details of another facility to recycle your waste.
	5	Contracts managed by following the principles of best practice	We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> give you information to help you to renew contracts; give you information to help you to choose contracts which meet your business needs.
	6	Reasonable and clear fees	We will explain how we work out your fees.

We are committed to helping you with your responsibilities in managing waste

Businesses that produce waste have a legal responsibility to get rid of it correctly. If you choose us to provide your waste and recycling services you can expect the following:

	7	Guidance on your responsibilities for managing waste	To help you make the right decisions for you and your business, we will help you access guidance which explains what your legal responsibilities are, including how to manage your waste in the best way for the environment.
	8	A directory of local waste and recycling services	To help you find out about waste and recycling services in your area, we will publish a directory of service providers, including from the public, private and voluntary sectors.
	9	Help with donating unwanted items for reuse or buying quality second-hand products	We will help you get in touch with local organisations if you are looking to get rid of, or buy, items which can be reused such as computers, furniture, printer cartridges and clothes.
	10	A sensible approach to enforcement	We will take enforcement action only when we have no other options left and where people cause significant problems for their neighbours and the environment.

We are committed to listening

Your feedback and ideas on improving our services are important to us. If you choose us to provide your waste and recycling services, you can expect the following:

	11	Easy ways to give us your feedback	If something goes wrong, or a service is not met, or if you have a question or would like to make a suggestion for improving our service, we will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> make sure you can contact us in ways that are simple and easy to understand; and deal with customer complaints fairly, consistently and promptly.
	12	A commitment to continuous improvement	We will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> actively ask for your feedback and ideas on how we can help you meet your responsibilities and make recycling easier; and summarise the most common complaints and feedback, and explain what we are doing to deal with these.
